Ezek 37:4-6, 10

This is what the Sovereign Lord says to these bones: I will make breath enter you, and you will come to life. I will attach tendons to you and make flesh come upon you and cover you with skin; I will put breath in you, and you will come to life...

So I prophesied as he commanded me, and breath entered them; they came to life and stood up on their feet — a vast army.

Acts 9:10-16

In Damascus there was a disciple named Ananias. The Lord called to him in a vision, "Ananias!"

"Yes, Lord," he answered.

The Lord told him, "Go to the house of Judas on Straight Street and ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul, for he is praying. 12 In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to restore his sight."

"Lord," Ananias answered, "I have heard many reports about this man and all the harm he has done to your saints in Jerusalem. 14 And he has come here with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who call on your name."

But the Lord said to Ananias, "Go! This man is my chosen instrument to carry my name before the Gentiles and their kings and before the people of Israel. 16 I will show him how much he must suffer for my name."

- 1. Many feel like ornaments that God takes you out once a year and lets you shine then, puts you back in a box. (God is withholding using you much, withholding His miracles from you.
- 2. Fear: Desperate fear of letting go and letting Jesus really reign
- 3. Feeling lost, taking the red pill most out of desperation- desperately wanting a miracle- you want to believe the truth but feel lost and tired and worn out. The battle has been hard and long; its like you are shutting down, overwhelmed, can't take one more thing happening or anymore bad news.
