Adventure

The wild life of walking with God

A man with a beard is shown in profile, looking out a window with horizontal blinds. The scene is dimly lit, with light coming from the window, creating a contemplative atmosphere. The text is overlaid on the lower half of the image.

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

Heb 12:2-3

Isa 53:1-6 (740 BCE)

Who has believed our message and to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? He grew up before him like a tender shoot, and like a root out of dry ground.

He had no beauty or majesty to attract us to him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by men, a man of sorrows, and familiar with suffering.

Surely he took up our infirmities and carried our sorrows, yet we considered him stricken by God, smitten by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him, and by his wounds we are healed.

We all, like sheep, have gone astray, each of us has turned to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity (sin, selfishness, bitterness, malice, hatred, immorality, adultery, faithlessness, etc.) of us all.

Heb 12:2-13

Who for the Joy set before Him endured the cross

Gen 17:8

The whole land of Canaan, where you are now an alien, I will give as an everlasting possession to you and your descendants after you; and I will be their God.

Ex 25:8

"Then have them make a sanctuary for me, and I will dwell among them.

Ex 29:45

Then I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God.

Jer 24:7

I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the Lord. They will be my people, and I will be their God, for they will return to me with all their heart.

Jer 32:38-40

They will be my people, and I will be their God. I will give them singleness of heart and action, so that they will always fear me for their own good and the good of their children after them. I will make an everlasting covenant with them: I will never stop doing good to them...

Ezek 14:11

Then the people of Israel will no longer stray from me, nor will they defile themselves anymore with all their sins. They will be my people, and I will be their God, declares the Sovereign Lord."

Ezek 37:23,27

I will save them from all their sinful backsliding, and I will cleanse them. They will be my people, and I will be their God...My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people.

2 Cor 6:16

As God has said: "I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people."

Heb 8:10-11

I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the Lord', because they will all know me...

Rev 21:3-4

And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes.

พ่อ... เอาเลือดของผมไป
Just give her my blood!

I will take her place!
